Get your lift ready for the 2019 Silverado and Sierra LD trucks in minutes with Challenger's drop-in B2280PR custom footpads. Challenger's B2280PR was specially designed to accommodate the new Silverado 1500's mixed-material construction. New extra-long heavy-duty polyurethane pad provides ample surface area to protect the truck's frame, and the drop-in design makes switching footpads quick and easy. Telescoping feature provides simple access to factory-recommended lift points. Two footpads required per lift. Footpads fit any current Challenger 10,000 lb. or 12,000 lb. lift model without need for truck adapters.
